

BluesEd 2026

The Redwoods

The Redwoods is in its tenth year as a BluesEd band! The 2026 edition is made up of returning members Angel, Kenley, Irish, Trixie, Casey, and Jordan, plus new members Isabelle and Ray. Band members range from middle school to high school in age with a variety of backgrounds and experiences, participating in various community and school music programs, as well as devoting time to private lessons.

The Redwoods is proud to be part of BluesEd, which cultivates and celebrates young musicians by connecting them to the music industry through weekly rehearsals with clinician interaction and showcasing their talent with live performances.

The Redwoods is one of the four bands of BluesEd, a youth music development program in the Omaha metro. BluesEd is celebrating its 25th year in 2026 and is sponsored by the Blues Society of Omaha.
